

Yes, the language in our resolution was copied from examples provided by other cities before there was specific discussion about the constitutional amendment, but I do believe it was the intent of the Council to support such action. So, I don't think it would be wrong to show Burien support.

*Email from City Contact
August 25, 2016*